Neighborhood Lemonade Stand Benefits Food Brings Hope

~Students use Spring Break to raise funds for FBH~

DAYTONA BEACH, April 13, 2015 – Food Brings Hope will receive the profits from a lemonade stand owned and operated by Adrianna Mortola, Cami Kent, Evelyn Kent, and Kathryn Dana, all of Ormond Beach.

While on Spring Break, the group of young ladies decided to spend their time off from school giving back to the community.

Dr. Chris Kent, a surgeon with Florida Hospital, met Food Brings Hope Founder and Chair, Forough Hosseini, at a fundraising event and later shared with his daughter, Cami, and wife, Connie, about Food Brings Hope (FBH) and its efforts to eradicate hunger and homelessness in the community. The girls did more research into FBH's mission and vision and decided they wanted to raise funds to benefit the organization.

Karen Jans, local resident and a long time supporter of FBH, was on her way home when she saw signs advertising a lemonade stand down the road.

"I am so impressed by the hard work and dedication of these girls during their Spring Break," expressed Jans.

The young ladies stayed until 6 p.m. raising funds and donations in the name of Food Brings Hope.

"We were so happy to raise money for Food Brings Hope," says Connie Kent. "It sounds like a wonderful charity that we would like to continue to be a part of."

"I am very impressed with the generosity and thoughtfulness of these young ladies," said Forough B. Hosseini, FBH founder and chair. "Acts of kindness like this have the power to change our community and inevitably our world. Mrs. Kent is an amazing role model for her girls and their friends; enabling them to learn how to give back while learning about running a small business and how to handle money. I am delighted FBH is the recipient of their hard work! Kudos to these young ladies!"
