PONCE INLET REALTY WARMS UP THE WINTER FOR FOOD BRINGS HOPE STUDENTS

Ponce Inlet Realty recently donated handmade crochet hats, scarves and coats to students who participate in the KidsZone and TeenZone programs. These items were recently distributed to the 29 schools involved in Food Brings Hope along with toys, shoes, socks and food donated by other local businesses and organizations.

FBH school sponsors were thrilled to receive the hats and scarves. Judi Winch, Executive Director of Food Brings Hope, stated, "Our students are out early in the morning waiting for buses to take them to school or walking. Some mornings are quite chilly and these scarves, hats and coats will help keep our children warm. Families don't always have the funds to purchase clothing items that are rarely needed in Florida. We truly appreciate this gift from Ponce Inlet Realty."
