Eugene Stanley Diamond
01/20/1927 - 05/10/2020

Eugene Stanley Diamond of Palm Coast, Florida, formerly from Bethpage, New York, passed away on May 10, 2020 at 93 years old. Born in Astoria, Queens, NY, Eugene was raised during the Great Depression.

Gene later became a P-47 crew chief of the 8th Army-Air Force Unit stationed in Okinawa during WWII. This is where he developed his love of planes. Gene obtained his BA degree in Business at Hofstra University in 1951. He began his management career working for Pan American Airlines and ended his career in business working for Panasonic Corporation. He leaves behind his beloved wife of 68 years, Edna Diamond. Together they raised their two children in Bethpage, New York, Robert and Jeanne. He was also blessed with a beloved son-in-law, Anthony and daughter-in-law Elaine. Eugene leaves behind 5 loving grandchildren, Stephanie and husband Chuck, Christine, Dominick and wife Laura, Richard and Lisa. He also leaves behind his brother, Jim and wife Ellen. He was an avid boater, happiest by the water, loved his drums and music, especially jazz. He could put a smile on anyone's face with his wry sense of humor. All found him a kind and gentle man whose smile would light up a room. Many thanks to the loving care provided to him these past 2 years at Brookdale Senior Living in Palm Coast, Florida. A service and celebration of his life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, in Gene's honor, the Diamond family is suggesting a donation to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital or the charity of your choice.

(Thomas) Michael Collins
1959 - 2020

Every morning Mike woke up early, thanked the Lord for the day, and looked for ways that he could help people and show everyone how much he loved them. He served God, his family and loved ones, and his country with impeccable honesty and integrity. He loved his children and his grandchildren fiercely. He battled cancer for years to stay on this earth to care for us and never complained through all the pain. He thanked God for choosing him to go through the fight and be used to touch other people. Never has there been a kinder more loving man and we have a huge hole in our hearts. He leaves behind a loving wife, three children, a son-in-law, a daughter-in-law, three grandchildren, father and stepmother, mother and stepfather, four brothers, two sisters, and countless dear friends. In lieu of flowers, please donate to Mike's favorite charities which included SamaritansPurse.org, Kafakumba.org, Calvaryfl.com, and Helping Hand Ministries of Hope of New Smyrna Beach. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, a private funeral will be held at Cape Canaveral National Cemetery. A Celebration of Life will be held later at Calvary Christian Center. Details will be announced as soon as the virus restrictions are lifted.

Marybeth A. Jeitner
March 12, 1951 - May 9, 2020

Marybeth Jeitner (nee Johnson), age 69, of Flagler Beach, died peacefully on Saturday, May 9, 2020. Originally from the Torresdale section of Philadelphia, PA, she attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart Eden Hall.

She later moved to Florida where she achieved a master's degree in psychology from USF, Tampa and dedicated her time to serving people suffering from addiction. Marybeth's humanity and undying spirit can be felt in her two published books: the children's Saving Libbie the Lobster, and the semi-autobiographical The Jumping-Off Place, Book One. The unfinished Book Two would have informed her later years living her dreams amongst a loving community that included her sister. In addition to her son, her legacy is her story and its inspiration. The world is poorer for her absence. Whether you knew her or not, she loved you. She is survived by her son, David (Sawa) Jeitner, of Japan; ex-husband, Mickey Jeitner, 3 sisters, Fran (Rich) Lutz, of Riegelsville, PA; Meg (Barry) Seabury, of Palm Coast; Trish (Bill) Greene, of Jacobstown, NJ; and brother, Robert A. (Donna) Johnson Jr., of Riverton, NJ. She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert A. Johnson Sr. and Peggy Johnson (nee Clarke). In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to: contribution.aa.org or mail to Alcoholics Anonymous, General Service Office, Box 459, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163, in her name. A memorial service will be held at a later date. Condolences may be made online at www.settlewilderfuneralhome.com.

Jerry Noal Koontz
Nov. 21, 1931 - May 11, 2020

Jerry Noal Koontz, 88, passed away quietly at his home on May 11, 2020 after a battle with cancer. He was born on November 21, 1931 in Lexington, North Carolina where he lived out his boyhood years until he enlisted with the US Navy as a gunner in the Korean War. When he returned from duty, he married his childhood sweetheart Jo Etta Beck and began a family in High Point, North Carolina. Wishing for greater opportunity and a warmer, more pleasant climate, he moved his family in 1963 to Daytona Beach to join his brother's air conditioning company. In 1967 he and his wife started their own company, Koontz Heating & Air conditioning and grew their business to become one of the larger HVAC contractors in the area. His personal commitment to meet his customer's needs along with an honest and caring attitude toward individuals set the foundation for the company and continues to this day with his son, Chris. He was active in the local community, participating in the Lion's Club International as well as ascending to 32" Degree Mason and a Shriner. He spent his free time enjoying the outdoors; boating, scuba diving, fishing, snow skiing and tending to his immaculate lawn. He loved being around family, always teasing and playing with his grand, and great-grandchildren and will be missed by those that loved him most. Jerry Noal Koontz is survived by his wife of 67 years, Jo Etta Koontz, son, Mark Koontz (Lynn), son, Chris Koontz (Ashley), grandchildren; Michelle Treadwell, Michael Koontz, Rochelle Koontz, and Kailey Koontz; great-grandchildren, Tripp Treadwell, Adalynn Treadwell, and Abriella Koontz. In lieu of flowers, the Koontz family request donations be made to the Food Brings Hope organization at foodbringshope.org Arrangements are under the care of Lohman Funeral Home Ormond Beach. Condolences for the family may be shared at www.lohmanfuneralhomes.com.
